Regarding:

Election for Agoura Hills City Council

Dear Neighbors,

As you know, for the first time in nearly 30 years I am not a candidate for the Agoura Hills City Council. My time on the council has been a wonderful experience, and over the course of the years I have been known for my pro-business stand, support of law enforcement and being approachable to residents and businesses alike.

Even though I won't be on the council, I will always remain committed to being concerned about the economic health of the city and a defender of public safety.

I've met with David Levine Bramante and discussed the major issues facing Agoura Hills and have decided that he deserves my support and yours in the upcoming election.

He is a businessman, a dad to four children and a coach to youth and, refreshing to say, is not part of any group or faction but rather is independent thinking, which I value and appreciate more and more in this day and age.

I encourage you to meet with him and get to know him and what he stands for and is committed to and then vote for David Levine Bramante in this important election on Nov. 8th.

Sincerely,
